Our Lord and God, we come together by your love, mercy, and grace. We confess we can be cast down and disquieted so easily as we wander in the spiritual wilderness of this world. We need the consciousness and encouragement of your presence. Reveal to us anew how much we can receive when we enter your house, in your presence and in the presence of others whom you love. Help us to stay faithful to You O God in the day-by-day relationships and decisions of life, in our time together. Amen.

Coming into work this morning (Tuesday), I was met by Pastor Jean in an apron, tools in hand. Her dedication to the congregations can be seen on Sunday, but also the rest of the week. From sermons to manual service. We are lucky to have her!

(This day was dedicated to cleaning & organizing the Sunday School room with the help of Jim and Kathy Hanson.)
